Ann,

Thank you for your email. In light of your representation that no one currently at Harbor Labs was involved in the report, and that Harbor Labs has not located any documents other than the CCI-Harbor Labs agreement and the report, we will not move forward with the deposition.

The RIAA produced a copy of the report this week.

Can you confirm that the individuals who were involved with the report were Seth Nielson and Chris Monson?

Diana,

Sorry for taking so long to get back to you. I needed to work on a matter with a deadline of this Friday.

With respect to Request 10 for all Communications with MarkMonitor, my response needs clarification. Harbor Labs does not have any materials, such as documents or electronically stored information, responsive to this Request.

With respect to Request 9 for all Documents and Communications concerning MarkMonitor, Harbor Labs further responds that it does not have any materials, such as documents or electronically stored information responsive, to this Request.

Please advise if and when you receive a copy of Harbor Labs' report from another party.

Thank you,

Ann

Diana,

As I indicated in our Response, in connection with your case, there is no agreement with Sony. Hence, there is no correspondence with Sony concerning an agreement. Nor was there correspondence with Sony in connection with the report.

With respect to correspondence with CCI, Harbor Labs has provided to you all of the documentation that it has in its possession.

I hope this answers your questions.

Ann,

Thanks
for your email.
As I
mentioned when we spoke,
subpoenaed MarkMonitor
and they have not produced
anything,
nor
have
confirmed that they
have a

of
the Harbor
Labs
report.
We
moved
to compel their compliance
last
week,
but our hearing
is
until later in March.
We
are also subpoenaing
Ms.
Lesser,
but
we
are
unclear
on whether she
is even
in possession
of
the CCI
documents.
Given
that

our
aggressive
schedule,
we
must move forward
on Harbor
Labs
well,
including moving
to compel
if necessary.

The
1 extension
is reasonable
light
these circumstances, particularly
given
that it sounds like
you
will be objecting
to
the
subpoena
rather than providing

documents,
but
correct
me
if I'm
wrong.

With
respect
the draft Harbor
Labs
report,
that
is directly responsive
to
subpoena
and
very relevant.
We
cannot rely
Dr.
Rubin's
judgment about what
is helpful.
That
should
produced.

attaching
our Protective

entered
in

which permits
third parties
to designate

Diana,

understand
your situation.
Without
getting into
issue
proper service
the
subpoena,
there
are
two things

want
to
point out
from
our
end.
First,
Avi
checked
into whether
he had
the
report
and
he found only one
in an old
email.
is
not sure how final
it
is,
and
he thinks
that
it
is
not something
you
will find useful at all based
his understanding
what
you
are looking

for.
Second,
due
to
contractual obligations,
my response
to
the
subpoena
will
that
we cannot
share this report
with
you
release
our
obligations
under
our agreements
or
an order
judge.
did
not indicate whether
you
made
any attempt
to contact MarkMonitor
the
outcome
any attempt.

Finally,
Avi
is
about
to leave
town
for
two weeks
and
will
traveling around California
and
Dallas
on business.
is going
be
very hard
to reach during
that time.
is testifying
in
two hearings
and having
two depositions
during
that
time
with lots
of
prep,
and
even
can't reach
him
when
he

in depo
or
depo
prep,
so I
don't think he's going
able
to respond
very quickly.
via
from
you
yesterday
to March
1st
is unreasonable especially given Avi's
work
schedule
fact
that
you
have
not
to
my knowledge
made
any
to reach MarkMonitor
pursuant
to
our
agreement regarding

of
time.

the
subpoena

there.
When
the
process
server
arrived, someone
from Harbor
Labs'
offices
came
to reception
and
accepted
service.
This
makes
effective
under FRCP
5(b)
(2)
and therefore there
is no reason
to re-
the
subpoena.
Since
time

passed,

and
given
that
we discussed
an
of
time
respond
while
we attempted
to get ahead
of
Ms.
Lesser,
we
will extend
the
time
this Friday,
1.

RE:
Sony/Cox
Subpoena
to Harbor
Labs

Ann,

an update,

wanted
to let
you
know
that
we
have
in
contact
with Jill
Lesser
(formerly
CCI)
but
have
been able
ahold
of
her.
Given
our
expedited
schedule
the Sony
case
and
our critical need
for
such
the

CCI-
Harbor
Labs
documents,
we
will
have
to move
forward
with
the
subpoena
to Harbor
Labs.
Please
advise
if
you
will accept
service
the attached
subpoena.
Otherwise,
we
will
reserve
formally.

am
available
to discuss tomorrow
your convenience;
am

mediation
today.

Regards,

Diana

Hi
Diana,

good.
Also,
our conversation,
you
agreed
either withdraw
the Subpoena
the
time
for Harbor
Labs
while
you
to MarkMonitor
and
Lesser.

Regards,

Ann
